

Beware!! Another Scam!

This week I received an email "from Microsoft" or so I thought. When I scanned the QR code, my phone stopped me, and I realized it was a scam. PLEASE, before hitting any links, or scanning a QR code from an email, PLEASE be sure to see what the email address is from the sender! This should let you know if it's a legitimate email or not.

2FA-Wesleyworc Compliance Mandate Required for your account. Qr600TF08202rtQ#.

QRCODE>>AUTHENTICATION_NOTIFICATION <mstone@fpckerville.org>
To Debi Reynolds

This is NOT from Microsoft!!! This is a fake email address.

Security Authentication

Office, due to recent security activities and updates.

You are being held responsible to review security update and requirement as of 28/09/2023.

Quickly scan above QR Code with your smartphone camera.

Review security requirements within 3 days of the received date by going to Account manager in the Security Center.

Wesleyworc© 2023 Microsoft Corporation. All rights reserved.